

Do you know of any other Russian courses or tutors?

If you know of any opportunities
for learning Russian in Scotland
that we have missed out please send us details!

info@scotlandrussiaforum.org

The Scotland-Russia Forum offer various levels of Russian tuition from complete beginners to advanced discussion groups.

More information:

[www.scotlandrussiaforum.org/
languageclasses.html](http://www.scotlandrussiaforum.org/languageclasses.html)

THE SCOTLAND-RUSSIA FORUM

Scottish charity no. SC038728

Summerhall

1 Summerhall

Edinburgh EH9 1PL

UK

tel. +44 (0)131 560 1486

email info@scotlandrussiaforum.org

@ScotRussiaForum

The Scotland-Russia Forum

www.scotlandrussiaforum.org

www.findoutaboutrussia.co.uk (information about Russia for school students)

Information in this leaflet is updated on

www.scotlandrussiaforum.org/directory.html

WHERE

can you

Try Russian?

How to find a Russian class or a tutor in Scotland

Where you can Try Russian in Scotland

Russian courses for adults

Universities

Three Scottish universities (and another fourteen in the rest of the UK) offer degree courses in Russian and two more offer short courses for beginners, open to both students and the public. All are open to learners with no previous knowledge of Russian.

Aberdeen University: short course

Dundee University: short course

Edinburgh University: degree

Glasgow University: degree

St Andrews University: degree

FE classes

Aberdeen:

Aberdeen University Language Centre

Dundee:

Dundee University Languages for All
Tayside Language Centre

Edinburgh:

Edinburgh Council adult classes
Edinburgh Univ. Languages for All
Scotland-Russia Forum
Yakety Yak Language Cafe

Falkirk:

Forth Valley College (flexible / distance learning)

Glasgow:

Glasgow Univ. Open Studies
Strathclyde Univ. adult classes

Kinross:

Kinross Learning Centre

Saturday schools

Lomonosov school

Saturday schools are supplementary schools run by members of the Russian speaking community. Most pupils are school-age children with one or both parents Russian-speaking. However the schools also welcome adult learners and children without any Russian heritage.

Aberdeen:

Lomonosov Russian School
Russian Education & Support Centre SLOVO

Dundee:

Dundee Russian School

Edinburgh:

Russian Edinburgh

Glasgow:

Russian Orthodox School in Glasgow
Russian School in Glasgow (RCS Haven)

New Year party at Slovo school

Independent study

Private tutors

A few Russian tutors are listed in the Professional Services directory section of www.scotlandrussiaforum.org. If you contact us we may be able to find others in your area.

If you can't find a tutor in your area it is worth bearing in mind that many tutors will teach over Skype.

Distance learning

Forth Valley College (Falkirk)

Liden & Denz (Moscow)

Self-study courses

• There is an excellent list of online courses on www.sras.org/library_russian_language.

• The Push-

kin Institute
in Moscow

have just launched a free MOOC

"PushkinOnline" (<http://pushkininstitute.ru>)

for self-study at all levels including beginners.

• Commercial self-study Russian courses include: Assimil, Living Language, Michel Thomas, Pimsleur, Rosetta Stone and Teach Yourself.

• We would also recommend Ruslan courses (www.ruslan.co.uk) which include an online course for beginners studying on their own.